*We do not live to ourselves, and we do not die to ourselves.
If we live, we live to the Lord, and if we die, we die to the Lord; so then, whether we live or whether we die, we are the Lord's. - Romans 14:7-8*

Caring for Loved Ones in Grief

The death of a loved one is a powerful and singular experience. Every death, like every life, is unique. Emotions are rich, multiple, and complex. There is no one right way to grieve, and different people in different circumstances will grieve very differently.

Please be gentle and kind with yourself and with others during this time of loss. Allow time to listen, laugh, cry, and process feelings and meanings. Do not force, rush or suppress grief. Do not judge or criticize unexpected reactions. Seek and offer support whenever needed, possible, and appropriate.

Please remember that Christ's church is here to accompany you and your loved ones on the grief journey. Do not hesitate to contact us. Reach out to the pastor for personal, confidential spiritual care and guidance when needed. Request a carefully trained Stephen Minister for long term listening and support. Attend worship and take comfort and nourishment from the service and community. Let us share God's love with you not only at the funeral or memorial service, but also throughout the difficult days ahead.

Planning Worship

As soon as you are ready to plan a funeral or memorial service for your loved one, please contact the pastor to schedule a meeting as well as the service date and time (818/348-8343 or pastorrod@sovls.org). We will make every reasonable effort to adjust schedules to fit your needs, but please understand that certain times might be unavailable due to prior commitments and holy days.

The meeting with the pastor has two purposes: to plan the specifics of the service, and to share memories and stories.

This helps the pastor personalize the message and also gives you time to pause and reflect upon the life and legacy of your loved one.

In planning the service, there are two guiding principles: it is Christian worship, and it honors the deceased.

A basic outline of the usual service order is as follows:

Welcome

Entrance Hymn

Apostolic Greeting and Prayer of the Day

Brief Remembrances (optional)

Scripture Readings

Sermon

Hymn of the Day

Prayers

Holy Communion (optional)

Commendation and Blessing

Sending Hymn

Dismissal

Holy Communion is appropriate when all feel welcome to participate. If it will unite the room, it is encouraged. If it will divide the room because of a multiplicity of traditions, it is counter-productive and discouraged.

Scripture readings and hymns are selected by the family in consultation with the pastor. Special music may also be added. Brief remembrances and other readings may also be shared before the reading of Scripture.

Military honors and/or video tributes may precede the service. Please consult with the pastor about all of these possibilities at the meeting.

The placement of flowers, photo displays, and other sanctuary decorations is at the discretion of the pastor. Balloons and plastic flowers are not permitted. The color for the day is determined by the Christian calendar.

Memorial Gifts

Many people honor those who have died with monetary memorial gifts to a charity of the family's choice. Please notify the pastor or church office of one or more recipients for such gifts. A basket will be placed in the narthex (sanctuary lobby) with a sign inviting contributions.

Flowers

Please take and enjoy all flowers received. If appropriate, one small altar arrangement may be left to adorn the altar for the upcoming Sunday and a remembrance may be placed in that Sunday's worship bulletin. Please do not leave the rest of the flowers behind at the church. Thank you.

Receptions

Founders Hall is available for receptions following worship. Regrettably at this time, the church is unable to guarantee volunteers to provide hospitality. Table decorations, displays, and full meals are at the expense and discretion of the family. Fully catered meals must be provided by Bella Donna Catering. Please speak with the pastor or church office about your plans and wishes.

Children being supervised by at least two responsible adults are welcome to use the play area outside.

In all cases, please leave things as you found them.
